

I Am the Spring

Morcheeba

Ground down
I know that you'll feel fine
If you let me in, hand in hand
To show you the way

Our life
Is always on the line
If we just begin our hope
I'll suit you some day

I am the spring
Love is blossoming
You take the fall
And sacrifice

I'll cheer you up
Fill your empty cup
A weekend song
On summer skies

Nervous
I'm knocking on your door
Will you let me in?
Face to face, I've something to say

Stranger
We should be intertwined
Like it's always been
Yes, I know, I'll suit you someday

I am the spring
Love is blossoming
You take the fall
And sacrifice

I'll cheer you up
Fill your empty cup
A weekend song
On summer skies

I am the spring
Love is blossoming
I'll take the fall
Fall for you
