

Heist

More Than a Thousand

I'll slit the throat of every rose I won't live this life on my fucking knees call me devil and no longer lover evil stitched to evil stitched

Where is the fucking trust?
You left me with nothing is this the taste of love?
I fucking call this hate OBEY!

I let myself open to you and this is all I get save your pity for the dead
I stay true to myself proud like a Lion
I wear the crown

I'm floating in the dead man's sea
I've been hiding from something I never did I forgot who I used to be
I want to sleep this life away

Back stabbing bitch you will die by your hands i'll see you in hell your demons await taste my revenge
you're in the dead zone your time has come
you're in the dead zone
OBEY!

I let myself open to you
and this is all I get save your pity for the dead
I stay true to myself proud like a Lion
I wear the crown

This is where you lose your ground
Bounce
This is where you lose your ground
Bounce
This is where you lose your ground
Bounce
This is where you lose your ground
Bounce

I'm floating in the dead man's sea
I've been hiding from something I never did
I forgot who I used to be
I want to sleep this life away hate fast love slow where did you go?
This place that I hate made me lose my faith
I let myself open to you
I'm floating in the dead man's sea
I've been hiding from something I never did
I forgot who I used to be
I want to sleep this life, sleep this life away
