

Freedom

Morgan Heritage

This one's entitled "Freedom," dedicated to the whole entire world, coming from Una, Gramps, Peter, Lukes and Mr. Mojo - Morgan Heritage:"

We're crying for freedom for all mankind
We don't care about color
Racism is not our style
We're fighting for a better world for the young boys and girls
This is our contribution towards a better world

Somebody sing Freedom for every black man
Freedom for every white man
Freedom for every Indian
'Cause we believe some day here on Earth
Every man will be free
Every man will be free

The world has gone crazy
That's life in this time
We've gotta make changes without destroying mankind
World unity
That's how it should be
Let's open our hearts and welcome tranquility

Somebody say Freedom for every black man
Freedom for every white man
Freedom for every Indian
'Cause we believe some day here on Earth
Every man will be free
Every man will be free

We're going through too much changes
Just to find peace of mind
If we could only be humble
Find a way to love each other while believing in each other
Then every man will be free
Every man will be free

Riding on the wings of a dove
Was a message from above
Over the hills and valleys there's a stream of love
Out of our reach
'Cause of the way we chose to be
Can you see
We've got so many souls in need

Indeed
There's so many ways
To find a way to communicate
About the facts of life
It's out there
So come and share this vibe with me
Under the umbrella of love
We keep it tight
Allright

We need positive people
With positive ways
Every man working equal
Towards a brighter day
We need to have faith
That all good things will come true
The better days I pray for are for me and you

Everybody sing Freedom for every black man
'Cause we believe some day here on Earth
Every man will be free
Every man will be free
