

So Much to Come

Morgan Heritage

Ay! Nuff more blood a go run
An' a nuff a dem nah follow Jah Son!
Whoa, yeah, yeah

If you think the Judgement start yet
There's so much more left to come, whoa
If you think you tears a run yet
So much more tears to run, yeah
If you think you see no blood yet
There's so much more blood to run, aw
Me feel it for the children
For the world as they know it
Will not last for long

If you think the Judgement start yet
Politicians selling corruption
But a gwarn with jus' preliminary action
These are the days known as the age of destruction
With politricksters leading every nation
Now behold Jah mighty army
Natural disaster greater than the great tsunami
Aww, prophets have always say
Greater Judgement yet to come

So if you think the Judgement start yet
There's so much more left to come, whoa
If you think you tears a run yet
So much more tears to run, yeah
If you think you see no blood yet
There's so much more blood to run, aw
Me feel it for the children
For the world as they know it
Will not last for long

Jus' check the yout' dem inna the street
Blood haffi run, a so dem see it
Killin' one another jus' to make ends meet
A so d system have dem weak
Sex an' violence dem a preach
Prostitution's got so much sisters in the streets, aw
Still we have to face so much more
Compare to what's to come AIDS is just a sore (just a sore)
Here in the ends Jah is our only friend
On Judgement day, we all stand alone

So if you think the Judgement start yet
There's so much more left to come, whoa
If you think you tears a run yet
So much more tears to run, yeah
If you think you see no blood yet
There's so much more blood to run, aw
Me feel it for the children
For the world as they know it
Will not last for long

In these time, mankind is living?
Many dreams are crumbling before eyes

Aw, I an I as Jah children,
I man love off dem ting dey
For prophecy mus' fulfill
An' a it we see a reveal, yeah

If you think the Judgement start yet
There's so much more left to come, whoa
If you think you tears a run yet
So much more tears to run, yeah
If you think you see no blood yet
There's so much more blood to run, aw
Me feel it for the children
For the world as they know it
Will not last for long

If you think the Judgement start yet
There's so much more left to come, whoa
If you think you tears a run yet
So much more tears to run, yeah
And if you think you see no blood yet
There's so much more blood to run, whoa
Me feel it for the children
For the world as they know it
Will not last for long
Will not last for long...
