

Take Up Your Cross

Morgan Heritage

I've seen the Son of Man, you know He's going there
With a voice much louder than the rolling thunder
And His presence causing the earth to tremble, yeah
Standing in His glory commanding all mankind be still
He said, Hear My voice and do My will
Take up your cross and walk with Me
So said this Man from Galilee
He said, I'll be there, so have no fear
He said, I'll be there, so have no fear, oh, yes
Said, He gave up His life so we can be saved
And live In the Father's everlasting light as it is
Take up your cross and walk with Me
(With Me)
So said this Man from Galilee
His voice was heard over valleys and mountains
(And mountains)
Saying, I'll be there, so have no fear
He said, I'll be there, so have no fear
Standing in His glory commanding all mankind be still
He said, Hear My voice and do My will
Take up your cross and walk with Me
So said this Man from Galilee
I saw His light from over yonder
He humbled me within, oh, He humbled me within
See the Son of Man
With a voice much louder than the rolling thunder
(Rolling, rolling)
And His presence causing the earth to tremble, yeah
Standing in His glory commanding all mankind be still (Be still)
Hear His voice and do His will
Take up your cross and walk with Me
So said this Man from Galilee
(Galilee)
So take up your cross and walk with Me
(Take up your cross)
So said this Man from Galilee
(Ooh, yeah)
So take up your cross and walk with Me
(Take up your cross, come walk with Me)
So said this Man from Galilee
(Come talk with me, everybody sing it)
Take up your cross
