

The Return

Morgan Heritage

Here come the kings
The return of the ruler
The roots come alive in ah the area
These are one that need ah basket

The headlines say whats next now
All eyes on Kinston town
Caribbean queens gone wild
What has the world come to now
Enough youth ah skin out
And call it entertainment
This is how they name it
We taught the girls to be successful
They out there half naked

Sometimes we can't tell the man from the woman now
And we cant tell the boys from the girls
Now ah nuff politicians dutty
And dem fi do thing to run the world?

Return of root and culture
The Return of, The Return of
Return of root and culture
Let it rise and never fall
Chant up

Return of root and culture
The Return of, The Return of
Return of root and culture
