

Your Best Friend

Morgan Heritage

Sometimes, a woman's gonna trust her friend
More than she trust her man (tell me why)
And it's so sad when the best friend
Turns out to be a deceiver

My phone rang about three o'clock this morning
And I thought it was you, but it was your best friend
Said she was lonely and ask me if she could come over
She said it would be our secret, but I couldn't deal with it
What made it worse

She's your best friend who became my friend
Then behind your back she tryna get in my bed
Baby I admit, I didn't hit it
'Cause if I did I wouldn't be no better than
Your friend who became my friend
Then behind your back she tryna get in my bed
Baby I admit, I didn't hit it
'Cause if I did I wouldn't be no better than your friend

So many times you said you can't trust me
So many times you think I was lying
But this is just how it happened
Take a look in your life and realize the friend that you keepin'
And how she want to be creepin', with your man
It's so sad

She's your best friend who became my friend
Then behind your back she tryna get in my bed
Baby I admit, I didn't hit it
'Cause if I did I wouldn't be no better than
Your friend who became my friend
Then behind your back she tryna get in my bed
Baby I admit, I didn't hit it
'Cause if I did I wouldn't be no better than your friend

Your friend, your best friend...

Now baby love just listen to me
I hate to be the one to tell you that your best friend tryna get with me
Talk about making access easy
I couldn't do wrong and make you turn around and hate me
But every day I hear my cell phone ringing
Check my voicemail and it's your girlfriend calling
Tellin' me she got my number from you I ain't lying
Tell me baby love if it's true what's the reason
Why she keep tellin' me my style she be feelin'
Why she keep tellin' me my that she don't mind creepin'
Why she keep tellin' me my bed she wanna sleep in Baby love, I don't mean to drop a dime on your friendship but
She make it easy, I don't know what to do
But baby girl, I know that I do love you
I would never jeopardize all the things we been through
That's why I keeps it real with you

This is 'bout your best friend who became my friend
Then behind your back she tryna get in my bed

Baby I admit, I didn't hit it
'Cause if I did I wouldn't be no better than
Your friend who became my friend
Then behind your back she tryna get in my bed
Baby I admit, I didn't hit it
'Cause if I did I wouldn't be no better than

Your friend who became my friend
Then behind your back she tryna get in my bed
Baby I admit, I didn't hit it
'Cause if I did I wouldn't be no better than
Your friend who became my friend
Then behind your back she tryna get in my bed
Baby I admit, I didn't hit it
'Cause if I did I wouldn't be no better than your friend
