

I've Had Friends

Morgan Page

Were you comfortable
At the end
Respectable
With no intent to relent

Culpable
For all my trends
You are sensible
To the very bitter end

My friend
I remember time
Standing still
I remember how I lost my mind
Don't recognize
How I feel
How I tried, how I tried

I've had friends
Been through trends
And learned how to pretend and lie

Don't depend on those friends
Who pretend to believe and ask
Why?
Don't depend on those friends
Who pretend to believe and ask
Why?
Don't depend on those friends
Who pretend and lie

Insatiable
Your love for life
Commendable
How you danced all night, alright

Taken down in your prime Mistaken how
Now and give me a sign tonight

My friend
I Remember time
standing still
I remember how I lost my mind
Don't recognize
How I feel
How I tried, how I tried

I've had friends
Been through trends
And learned how to pretend and lie
Why?

Don't depend on those friends
Who pretend to believe and ask
Why?
Don't pretend and lie

Don't depend on those friends
Who pretend to believe and ask
Why?
Don't pretend and lie
