

Open Heart

Morgan Page

If you need to take time,
When you make up your mind, I will be here
You don't have to hide or keep it all inside
I'm always near

I try so hard to write it all out
You work so, hard to push it all down
You keep your heart
You keep your

Open heart
Hidden in the dark
Open heart
Afraid that it'll break apart
Open heart
I think that you should start,
To have an open heart

It's OK to love blind
And you know you'll be fine, no need to fear
Hold me up to my words
The passion behind my eyes is reserved all for you

I try so hard to write it all down
You work so hard to push it all out
You keep your heart
You keep your

Open heart
Hidden in the dark
Open heart
Afraid that it'll break apart
Open heart
I think that you should start,
to have an open heart

Cover, there's no cover to blow
No game to play, No undertow, I've been told
You keep your

Open heart
Hidden in the dark
Open heart
Afraid that it'll break apart
Open heart
I think that you should start,
to have an open heart
