

Trigger

Morgan Page

I am ready, I'm in love
I am lost like the sun on the street
I can't forget it, I believe
I surrender, I submit to this dream

Before, when I had a feeling
I was protected, had a lover's shield
I can't regret it, it was so surreal
Caught in the moment, can't get away

Baby, pull my trigger
I aim for your heart, aim for your heart
Baby, pull my trigger
I aim for your heart, aim for your heart

Now we're living, crazy love
For the rush, I'm alive from your touch
I wanna get it, like a race for your heart
Finish first in your arms

Before, when I had a feeling
I was protected, had a lover's shield
I can't regret it, it was so surreal
Caught in the moment, can't get away

Baby, pull my trigger
I aim for your heart, aim for your heart
Baby, pull my trigger
I aim for your heart, aim for your heart

I aim for your heart, I aim for your heart
I aim for your heart
I aim for your heart, aim for your heart

I aim for your heart
Baby, pull my
I aim for your heart
Baby
I aim for your heart
Baby, pull my
I aim for your heart
Baby, pull my

Baby, pull my trigger
I aim for your heart, aim for your heart
Baby, pull my trigger
I aim for your heart, aim for your heart

Baby, pull my
I aim for your heart
Baby
I aim for your heart
Baby, pull my
I aim for your heart
Baby, pull my
