Paradise Lost

Morgana Lefay

I am the lord of the fallen The ultimate rebel from paradise A philosopher free thinking breed The sovereign of anarchy Legionaries of every tribe This is where we dwell A place of eternal dusk We are the dignitaries of hell Here we shall rule Even though it isn't hell I will retake My lost paradise Into the garden of Eden As a serpent I come to tempt I offer you to taste the fruit From the tree of knowledge I make you a demigod I give you my thoughts I want to make sure that you will be A rebellion to the trinity Here we shall rule Even though it isn't hell I will retake My lost paradise Fallen into the abyss of fire Fallen into the abyss of fire
