

Escape

Morifade

I'm haunted by shadows inside
Nowhere to run, nowhere to hide
The lunacy strikes from behind
Planting its roots inside your mind
I feel so strange
I feel so lame in my soul
From time to time it's hard to tame
Doing things I can't control

I am lost to insanity
When will I break free?

I'm running away from my life
Knowing the lunacy's thrown the dice
I'm loosing the knowledge of me
Why can't you see that I...

Save me from insanity
Save me from myself
Breakable as it may seem
But trust me I have seen
The depths of hell

When will I break free?
Help me to escape!!!
