

Your Majesty

Morning Parade

Put your money down, put your money down you've never looked like one to get the run around I'm a safe bet, I'm a cold sweat, I'm the voice that whispers in your nightmares

I know you'd like to settle down now, but you know I like to make a scene yeah,

Come let your pretty eyes ride out of the water
I've got a thousand smiles your majesty
I go for miles and miles and at every altar
Cos' I've got it all locked down your majesty

I'm gonna come clean I want to be obscene not one to come on around and meet the family it's time to wake up, slap on your make up I wanna see the whites of your eyes

Do I know you'd like to settle down now?
but you know I like to make a scene yeah,

Come let your pretty eyes ride out of the water
I've got a thousand smiles your majesty
I go for miles and miles and at every altar
Cos' I've got it all locked down your majesty

Put your money down, put it outta' town you never looked like one to get the run around I'm a safe bet, I'm a cold sweat, I'm the voice that
whispers in your nightmares
Oh you know I'd love to stick around, oh you coulda' seen me come undone
Oh, you and me, we coulda' been amazing
