

For All Eternity

Morta Skuld

As I walk the earth
With the sins of mankind
These eyes of hate stare
From an unforgiving man

By the voices of our children cry
Are we reminded?
As their souls are torn
A mere excuse for a sickened mind

The pain I can't let go
Innocence is over

As they stand before me
With judging eyes

This bitter man stands alone
As tears roll down their faces
Don't turn your back on them

Understand there is no understanding
For their disease, they justify

By the voices of our children cry
Are we reminded?
As their souls are torn
A mere excuse for a sickened mind

The pain I can't let go
Innocence is over

As they stand before me
With judging eyes

This bitter man stands alone
As tears roll down their faces
Don't turn your back on them

As they reach for security
Cruelty strips their life away
For all eternity
