

Tears of a Fallen Race

Morta Skuld

Our age of innocence
Taken away

Awaiting for the dawn
We live in denial
The earth soon will return to ashes
But we refuse to see

Can we see our dying day?
As I fall from my grace
These weeping words in which I cry
Will their tears forget you?

Awaiting for the dawn
We live in denial
The earth soon will return to ashes
But we refuse to see

Can we see our dying day?
As I fall from my grace
These weeping words in which I cry
Will their tears forget you?

Man's last mistake
His rise to fall

To conquer all
In our lies do we drown
We drown

Our age of innocence
Taken away

Look into my eyes
What do you think you'll see?
I see all your lies
And the fear
That is within you
