

Burned into Your Soul

Mortal Sin

It burrows into your brain
It penetrates deep inside your mind
The memories will remain
Nothing can be done to stop this pain

Burned into your soul
The bleeding hearts have lost control
Burned into your soul
Hypnotised by mind control

Anyone in your way
You don't have a fucking say
In your mind in your head
Live to fight another day
Evil thoughts evil ways
All your dreams are led astray
Nothing can be done to stop this pain

Burned into your soul
The bleeding hearts have lost control
Burned into your soul
Hypnotised by mind control

The battle inside your mind
The tragedies etched are all unkind
The passage of time remains
Choking on the blood inside your veins
Everyone in your head
You believe are fucking dead
Blown away left to die
Gave them all their last goodbye
Fatal wounds body shields
Taken from the killing fields
Nothing can be done to stop this pain

Burned into your soul
The bleeding hearts have lost control
Burned into your soul
Hypnotised by mind control

Burned into your soul
Burned into your soul
Burned into your soul
Burned into your fucking soul
