

Mr. Danny Boy

Mother Love Bone

Come on!
What can I take from you
What can I take from you
What's worth a plug nickel to a silly fool
What can I take from you

Why did I leave you there?
Why did I leave you there?
With your long black kitty and your funky hair
Why did I leave you there?
Give to me

See mr. danny boy
Did ya see mr. danny boy
He's a rock top boxer just a bundle of joy
See mr. danny boy

Why did I leave you there?
Why did I leave you there?
With your long black kitty and your funky hair, hair, hair, hair

I said baby
Stop lovin' by the rules, all right, come on, do it!
I heard the rumors Danny
Stop your talkin' Danny
I heard the rumors Danny, Danny
Lost down in Santa Fe
I had love with a runaway
And to think my daddy thought I was gay
Said I lost mine in Santa Fe

The riff miester is my friend
The riff miester is my friend
I love that motherfucker till the very end
Bolan was my man
Said baby
Stop lovin' by the rules, yeah, come on, do it!
I heard the rumors, Danny
Stop your talkin Danny, yeah
I heard the rumors, Danny, Danny
It's a long long road for this here desperado
And its cold cold cold visions of tomorrow
So when was the last time you wrote for me a song

I said babe, stop loving by the rules
And don't play for sorrow
Don't play the fool
Don't play the fool, yeah

I heard the rumors Danny
Stop your talkin' Danny
I heard the rumors Danny, Danny
Rumors Danny, Danny, Danny...
