Motorpsycho

Look out, look out
These are schmolitics really
Look out, look out
But all outta whack
Look out, look out
It's so touchy and feely
Look out, look out
The front is starting to crack
C'mon, c'mon
Well, it's bound to get crazy
C'mon, c'mon
It's just bound to get weird
C'mon, c'mon
You know it's gonna get hazy
C'mon, c'mon
Do you think they've prepared?
You know it
But who's paying?
You and you and you and you
You know it
I'm just saying
Whatcha gonna do?
Look out, look out
You better watch where it's going
Look out, look out
You'll be bought you'll be sold
Look out, look out
This little cockrel is crowing
Look out, look out
His name's written in gold
C'mon, c'mon
We've got to pick it up people
C'mon, c'mon
These guys won't ever quit
C'mon, c'mon
From the floot to the steeple
C'mon, c'mon
We'll be drowning in shit
You know it
Cuz who's paying?
You and you and you and you
You know it
I'm just saying
Whatcha gonna do?
There's a song for everyone
And a singer for every song
There's a song for everyone

There's a song for everyone
Look out, look out
Look out, look out

Look out, look out
Look out, look out
The front is starting to crack
C'mon, c'mon
C'mon, c'mon
It's just bound to get weird
C'mon, c'mon
You know it's gonna get hazy
C'mon, c'mon
Do you think they've prepared?
You know it
But who's paying?
You and you and you and you
You know it
I'm just saying
Watch out!
There's a song for everyone
There's a song for everyone
There's a song for everyone
There's a song for everyone
There's a song for everyone
There's a song for everyone
There's a song for everyone
There's a song for everyone
There's a song for everyone
