

I know I heard yesterday still can't believe that it's True
I know I heard yesterday do you mention us what to do
I know I was shocked I was stunned I don't know what to Say
I still be hanging here all day
Anyway

I know I heard yesterday still can't believe that it's
True
I know I heard yesterday do you think she knows what to
Do
I know I was shocked I was stunned I don't know what to Say
I still be hanging here all day
And silently pray

And all her friends, they tell her she'll
Be better off without him
I've heard that he's been fooling around
With every little tramp in town

But now that it's done and it seems like it starts to
Say
She might be tempted to rock my way

I know I heard yesterday still can't believe that it's
True
I know I heard yesterday do you think she knows what to
Do
I know it's absurd if it's true what I heard then I'm Floored
It's as if I wrote the storyboard

And all her friends, they tell her she'll
Be better off without him
I've heard that he's been fooling around
With every little tramp in town

But now that she's free she'll come over to me and She'll say
Do you want to come out and play
With me today
