

He's a truly fine citizen
He works all day
He leads a perfect life
In every way
He goes to church
He dresses up tight
He rapes his pre-teen children at night
I don't understand it
f*cks his daughter
f*cks his son
I somehow can't imagine he's the only one
It's a sick world, baby
When 3 out of 10

Molest their children
Again, and again, and again, and again
I don't understand it
Listen to me
'cause I think you should know
When the pain is sown
It won't ever go
It's in shadows
It's in the brain
How can man impose on someone
A lifetime of pain?
I don't understand it
