

The Ocean In Her Eye

Motorpsycho

Sometimes- wake up in the past
Mary,mary so contrary
Daydreams - forget all too fast
Picking minds when it gets scary

It's too quiet to be listening
Turn a face to the sky
There's a lifeline somewhere out there
With an ocean in her eye

Slowly as lifetimes unfold
Unobtrusivly it's shaking
Watching kids lose their souls
It's all there for the taking

But it's too quiet to be listening
Turn your head face the sky
And the lifeline somewhere out there
With that ocean in her eye

Go find that lifeline out there
With that ocean in her eye.....
