

Picture Of You

Mr Hudson

It's always the sunny days that bring me down
When I'm reminded that you're not around.
Friends try and fail to make me smile
But I had the answer with me all the while.
I've got a picture of you
Wherever I go
A sweet reminder from you to me
I'm never alone.

Should time should bring me fame or a touch of bling
(Imagine that, getting paid to sing).
Keep your cars, cigars and frosted drinks
Without you here they just won't mean a thing

I've got a picture of you
Wherever I go
A sweet reminder from you to me
I'm never alone.

I've got a picture of you
Wherever I go
A sweet reminder from you to me
I'm never alone

Sometimes at night I wonder watching all the faces
Knowing I won't see you
No there is no other face that could replace the one that's gone
No one could be you
No

I've got a picture of you
A sweet reminder from you to me
I'm never alone.

I've got a picture of you
Wherever I go
A sweet reminder from you to me
I'm never alone.

I've got a picture of you with me
Wherever I go
A sweet reminder from you to me
No, I'm never alone

I've got a picture of you with me
Wherever I go
A sweet reminder from you to me
I'm never alone

I've got a picture of you
A sweet reminder from you

A sweet reminder from you
