

Gone

Mr. Probz

[Anderson .Paak:]

Say, if you see me then you see me
But, I might not be here for too long
You know I just need a light though, honestly
Because uh...
Yeah, once the smoke goes in the air
Then you know I might not be there when it clears
But if I am, well then shit
You might have a good time

[Mr. Probz:]

I guess I'll go stepping
Even though the world is upside down
Want to know answers to the questions
At the edge of the map
Will you fall down
Let up the mast so we can set sail
Not too many ways for me to plead help

In the big city
Are the streets really paved with gold
All I need is a witness
And a pack of cigarettes to smoke

Light one up and I'm gone
I'm so gone
Light one up and I'm gone
So gone
Light one up and I'm gone
I'm so gone
Light one up and I'm gone
I'm headed to the place I belong

No one can stop you
When you're the one the people have chose
And this ride is not for everybody
So get out if you can't pay the toll
Let up the mast so we can set sail
I made up my mind to see for myself

In the big city
Are the streets really paved with gold
All I need is one witness
And a pack of cigarettes to smoke

Light one up and I'm gone
I'm so gone
Light one up and I'm gone
So gone
Light one up and I'm gone
I'm so gone
I'm headed to the place I belong

[Anderson .Paak:]

Heading off for the city
Another night, another hotel

Thank God I still got a little love in the one hitter
I can fly anywhere

Say, you won't see me in one spot for too long
Had my drinks I got deep thoughts that you want
I put five in this jukebox
And still got a bit more time before they play my song
You'd be silly to plan your life around me
I got somewhere to go, somewhere I got to be
Ain't no telling what the future holds but before I leave

[Mr. Probz:]
I'm so gone
Light one up and I'm gone
So gone
I'm so gone
Light one up and I'm gone
I'm headed to the place I belong
