

Trailer

Mudcrutch

I graduated high school
I bought her a trailer
In a little park by
The side of the road
I could've had the Army
I could've had the Navy
But no, I had to go for
A mobile home
Yes I gave it all to you, babe
All up to you and that trailer too, babe
I kept up with my interest
I kept up with my payments
She never said goodbye
I never asked why
Man, we used to dance to
Lynyrd Skynyrd

Ah she used to look so
Good at times
Yes I gave it all to you, babe
Wasn't room in that trailer for two, babe
I can't find a thing, babe
That gives me an answer
That shines any light on
The way things went
I get by on my own time
I ain't cut out for workin'
I ain't cut out for nothin'
That pays my rent
I guess I gave it all to you, babe
All to you and that trailer too, babe