

First...all was calm for this man
But not for long!
He just finished his day of work
The traffic was so berserk
His shortcuts show him the way
Unfortunately it won't today!

This well mannered man
Bites on his hand
What drove him mad?

Trying to grasp his mind
Soon he'll be out of time
What's gotten into him?
Ratbite!

Heart pounding out of his chest
Sweat dripping through his pores
His bare hands shred victims skin
While limbs and flesh hit the floor
Bodies torn to bits all life's lost
This man feels no remorse

First...all was calm
But now his mind is gone!

Stranger things have happened I guess
But none's result as bloodsoaked as this!

What has gotten into his head?
Ratbite!!!!!!
