

True Dark

Murder by Death

I called out your name
Into the dark
But nobody came
Nobody heard

I've been searching my whole life for you
Always come up dry
Maybe better luck next time
In the by-and-by

Nowhere to run, nowhere to hide
Your time is done, no room for pride
True dark is coming from the inside

Darkness is a light
From a city on fire
True dark is the knowledge
That the flames will burn higher

There's nothing in this world you can say
That will make me believe
I should follow some fool off a cliff
Just cause he's in the lead

Nowhere to run, nowhere to hide
Your time is done, no room for pride
True dark is coming

There's nothing left for me here
There's nothing I can find
If I told you I knew why
It'd be a lie

True dark
True dark
True dark
True dark
True dark
True dark
True dark
True dark
