

Hit Me! Hit Me!

Mustard Plug

Running fast gonna take an alleyway
Spent my money pissing all my time away
Take a break
Just to meet you
At the punk for a pint
Tossing back faster than I really should
Forgot to savor all the feeling that I could Take my chance you drank half the room
But as I walked away
I heard these words come out

Hit me hit me hit me with sensation
I'll hit it back with a citation
Hear my hear my hear my revelation
Hit the floor
Feel the liberation
Knew a girl shadow of her former self
Just a phantom living in a private hell
Had to show her all she threw away from her life
Life's a journey not another losing fight
And I'm sober for you're gonna get it right
So you gotta drink up all the joy
That you can now sit back
Listen to these words

Hit me hit me hit me with sensation
I'll hit it back with a citation
Hear my hear my hear my revelation
Hit the floor
Feel the liberation

Hit me hit me hit me with sensation
I'll hit it back with a citation
Hit me hit me hit me with sensation
I'll hit it back with a citation

Hit me hit me hit me with sensation
I'll hit it back with a citation
Hear my hear my hear my revelation
Hit the floor
Feel the liberation
