

Haunted By Myself

Mustasch

I know I blew it all
I closed all doors
I burned my bridges
And all I have to solve
I'm waiting for the last of minutes
Can't tell the truth at all
I break the law to push all limits

I'm Haunted By Myself

I know I have to go
I'd better buy a one way ticket
At last, a wake up call
For once and all I leave Black City

I'm Haunted By Myself
