

The Final Slowdance

MxPx

You're taking all the space up in my head
With all the things that we could do and
All the things that could be said
It's hard for me to understand
The way I feel about you and the way it Made me feel to hold your hand

Am I running out of time or am I at the starting line?
I know I missed the mark yet I just need some sort of sign

My words don't come out easily
So I will tell you honestly
No one wants to spend Eternity alone....
