

You're out all night
How long can I wait?
To justify another cold embrace
Your love is a lie
And I can tell by your face
I've made up my mind
And I've accepted our fate

(So long) I can read between the lines
(Two wrongs) couldn't ever make it right
Now I'm gone, gone, I'm gone
Yea, I'm movin' on
Ooon, I'm gone
Yea I'm movin' on

{Where did our love
Where did our love
Where did our love go?}

You won't pick up the phone
When I know you're with him
And you smell like cologne
It's all over your skin
You keep looking away
When you're talking to me
And you said you would change
But I just can't believe

(So long) I can read between the lines
(Two wrongs) couldn't ever make it right
Now I'm gone gone I'm gone
Yea, I'm movin' on
Ooon, I'm gone
Yea I'm movin' on

You will never break my heart again
You said forever and you'd always be there to the end
You will never break my heart again
But you'll come running when it happens to you in the end (the end)

When he's out all night
How long will you wait?

(So long) I can read between the lines
(Two wrongs) couldn't never make it right
Now I'm gone gone I'm gone
Yea, I'm movin' on
Ooon, I'm gone
Yea I'm movin' on

{Where did our love
Where did our love

You're out all night
How long could I wait?
