

Here you can buy anything
Blood and dope and sin and gold
Here you can buy anything
Or anybody

Rip off your black lace
Let us gaze upon you
They're not making harlots like they used to Silent accuser, diamond dust on ice
This is you

Missy, I don't say she's not beautiful
But she wasn't looking beautiful tonight
She doesn't equal me
Look at her make-up, it's terrible

Flowers of Venus
My transvestite sisters
My transvestite sister's singing

The most evil woman in the world

Make up your face cruel and they love you (and they love you)
They're taking you further than you want to (and they love you)
Violet illusion, fabulous witch of the world
This is you
Missy, I don't say she's not beautiful

But she wasn't looking beautiful tonight
She doesn't equal me
Look at her make-up, it's terrible

Flowers of Venus
My transvestite sisters
My transvestite sister's singing
The most evil woman in the world

Here you can buy anything
Blood and dope and sin and gold
And that's why all the true beauties didn't come
It's in bad taste and you're showing your color
I am, I am doing it, babe, but I've gotta
I have a right to show my color, darling
I am beautiful and I know I'm beautiful
What you talking 'bout, she's showing her color

Flowers of Venus
My transvestite sisters
My transvestite sister's singing

The most evil woman in the world
