My Morning Jacket

You said, "Evan is comin' over again"
And I said, "If he does, I'll kick, I'll kick his head in"

I've known you for years, I know all your moves
I just can't believe that it caved in this soon
And I'm playin' it over and over again
In my head

You said "Evan is comin' over again"
I asked "Where you goin'?", and you said "Where you went"

He took you to movies and carnival tents
Bought you big houses and payed all the rent
And I'm playin' it over and over again
In my head

Oh but Los Angeles ain't that far
And the rest of the girls said they'd be there
By my car, by my car
By my car, by my car

Oh but Los Angeles ain't that far
And the rest of the girls said they'd be there
By my car, by my car
By my car, by my car
