

Old September Blues

My Morning Jacket

All alone at the end of the day
Really tired, it's time to hit the hay
It was always good to hear you say
You never were a drawback
You always were an asset
You never were a drawback, no you weren't
All alone at the end of the day
Really tired, it's time to hit the hay
It was always good to hear you say
You never were a drawback
Yeah, you always were an asset
You never were a drawback, no you weren't
Put away your corset
Put away your shoe
Put away the old September blues
