

Middle Finger

My Ruin

You'd like to think that you know me well - You never thought I would ever tell

Signed a deal with the Devil - Then I told him to go straight to hell

I'd like to take you by your hand - And bash your skull in with a bat

I'd like to cut you down to size - While I pray for your demise

And this time I won't be nice - I'd like to end your fucking life

You're all talk but your words are empty - The big shot you pretend to be

You're all talk but your words are empty - My middle finger is all you get from me

You'd like to think that you know me well - You never thought I would ever tell

Signed a deal with the Devil - Then I told him to go straight to hell

I'd like to pull your insides out - And push your heart into your mouth

I'd like to crucify your wrists - And drive the nails in with my fists

And this time I won't be nice - I'd like to end your fucking life

You're all talk but your words are empty - The big shot you pretend to be

You're all talk but your words are empty - My middle finger is all you get from me

And you can blame me so you feel better

I know the truth and I've read your letters

D is for Devil - The great misleader - D is for Devil - The great deceiver

D is for Devil - The great offender - D is for Daniel - The great pretender

You're all talk but your words are empty - The big shot you pretend to be

You're all talk but your words are empty - My middle finger is all you get from me

I'd like to watch your face turn blue

As I hold this grudge against you

Take my vengeance out on you

Make my violent fantasy come true
