Sanctuary

Dis...honest you came with your first kiss blue eyes sold me your heavenly presence something was suffocating me...couldn't breath had no idea that you would ever deceive i tried to believe all the things that you taught me christ like images of truth...they straight got me now watch me drown in sadness my lungs gasp for air cause i let you stab this... Heart...and rip apart wounds that exist deeper and darker than any words i could spit all is shit and it will never be well because the fires that burn are my never ending Hell

Is this what you call god? Your faith is lost is this what you call god? Get off your cross get off...

Connect each other for necessity lifelines scar my hands like the rest of me asked me to trust you and yes i tried to constant apologies caused me to lie too tried to medicate my hate with your magic how could something so sweet end up so tragic ressurect me from this abyss in death every body function fails to exist false commitments tongues twisted with religion a heart shaped rock of the same size incision obsolete with no relief or release just insomnia filled nights of never ending...sleep

Is this what you call god? Your faith is lost is what you call god? Get off your cross

Split a piece of wood and i am there lift a stone and you will find me are you still scared? Sanctuary sanctuary there's no sanctuary

Is this what you call god is this what you call... God is this is this is this what you call love get off get off

My Ruin

watch me
get off get off
watch me
get off get off
now watch me fall...
I swallowed all your lies and they felt good going down...
Death be not proud
