

Unbreakable

Mýa

When you look into my eyes
Tell me what you see
It's my turn

All the good and the bad
Everything in my past
All the ups and the downs
I've had so many wrongs that I've lost count
But it made me who I am
And I wouldn't change a thing
'Cause it crowned me like a king
Crowned me like a king, whoa yeah
I'm a living witness of
Faith at its best
I've been put through the test

Nothing comes easy
But don't stop believing
Yeah, I made some mistakes
Wouldn't take them away
I've fallen on my ass
But bad days don't always last
Just stand your ground
And be unbreakable
Whoa, unbreakable
Oh, yeah, yeah

All the tears that I've cried
Brought me here in my life
All the lows and the highs, yeah
I'm conditioned for anything, I'm prepared to [?]
'Cause it made me who I am
And I wouldn't change a thing
'Cause it crowned me like a king
Crowned me like a king, whoa
I'm a living witness of
Faith at its best
I've been put through the test

Nothing comes easy
But don't stop believing
Yeah, I made some mistakes
Wouldn't take them away
I've fallen on my ass
But bad days don't always last
Just stand your ground
And be unbreakable

Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
I met some people that promised the globe
Check the map, all I got is my home
They said I'm next, if a hit was present
I went in, gave 'em a gift, got nothin' but coal
They said I'm pushing buttons, but they wanted control
Said I could have it all, all they want is my soul
But I need a friend in this game, the rest could wait
Forget the cash, all I need is a check - mate

So when that bandwagon is idlin'
And just when they think you're close to retirin'
A producer introduces your music to Mya and
She know what your flow is, she hear it and so they fly him in Young real hot shit, I come across
Could be your favorite if you root for the underdog
Cocky, that's not me, I speak in a somersault
And hoops I had to jump through to get someone to applaud
My hometown love it that I'm on Ships sailing 'til I'm [?]
And I never wanted [?]
And now I think I just want one for y'all
And I say that, then say this, just dream
Throw caution to the wind, all it takes is one breeze
'Cause when your eyes don't dry up, they just freeze
So find that fire and just be unbreakable
