

Magical Feeling

MYMP

I was in a car crash
Threwed up like trash
Slap twice, step thrice
It felt so real
Baby what's the deal
Look straight into my eyes
You told me all these lies

I didn't see it coming
I didn't see it happening
That one day you'd be leaving me hanging

I'm happy you left me
I prayed that you hurt me
It's a magical feeling
Knowing that you're not meant for me

Heavy rains poured on me
Lightning struck and hit me
Slap twice, step thrice
It felt so real
Baby what's the deal
Look straight into my eyes
You told me all these lies

I didn't see it coming
I didn't see it happening
That one day you'd be leaving me hanging

I'm happy you left me
I prayed that you hurt me
It's a magical feeling
Knowing that you're not meant for me

People say you're sorry
But baby don't you worry
Life has been easier without you
We should have done this earlier.

I'm happy you left me
I prayed that you hurt me
It's a magical feeling
Knowing that you're not meant for me
I'm happy you left me
I prayed that you hurt me
It's a magical feeling
Knowing that you're not meant for me
