

Look up and say my pray'r
At times I feel there's no one there
Though I asked for a shoulder
That I could lean on
What's deep in my heart
He knows what I'm longing for

And then that's when I met you
Faith could have brought me to you
I know you're my answered pray'r
'cause I see in you

Eyes that could see through me
Warmth that takes away my plea
Where my heart is felt as it changes speed
I know when it's time we allow love to take its seat

I taunt when there's no one to talk to
I'm lost for words and darkness makes me blue
And I ask for a shoulder
That I could lean on
What's deep in my heart
He knows what I'm longin' for

And then that's when I met you
Faith could have brought me to you
I know you're my answered pray'r
'cause I see in you

Eyes that could see through me
Warmth that takes away my plea
Where my heart is felt as it changes speed
I know when it's time we allow love to take its seat

Eyes that could see through me
Warmth that takes away my plea
Where my heart is felt as it changes speed
I know that it's time we allow love to take its seat
