The road I have traveled on
Is paved with good intentions
It's littered with broken dreams
That never quite came true

When all of my hopes were dying Her love kept me trying She does her best to hide The pain that she's been through

[Chorus:]

When she cries at night
And she doesn't think that I can hear her
She tries to hide
All the fear she feels inside
So I pray this time
I can be the man that she deserves
'Cause I die a little each time
When she cries

She's always been there for me Whenever I've fallen When nobody else believes She'll be there by my side

I don't know how she takes it Just once I'd like to make it Then there'll be tears of joy That fill her loving eyes

[Chorus]

So I pray this time
I can be the man that she deserves
'Cause I die a little each time
When she cries
