Dark Side Of The Moon

Mystic Prophecy

I'm afraid of day and night
I'm breaking into thousand pieces
Hands are touching me, again and again
And I can't defeat myself
Is this only a dream?
Please tell me why!

It's the dark side of the moon
When I see your face in black

Every night, destroying my dreams I'm crying and try to escape Cause the pain is unbearable When you close The door behind you I stay alone with my shattered Dreams and all the pain

It's the dark side of the moon
When I see your face in black

I'm trying to walk away
But I know that you're coming back

And it will happen in the most Beautiful parts of my dreams And everything will start again And I ask you why?

I'm trying to walk away
But I know that you're coming back

It's the dark side of the moon
When I see your face in black
