

Shoulda Put Something On

N-Dubz

Eyeaahhhhhh
Owoooooeee

You know we ain't cool with one another
You don't deserve to decide when I'm gonna be a papa (Never)
However much I hate you think I'm gonna sit around
And watch the little one suffer (NO)
I ain't gonna lie I'm always behind when you get on all 4's
But when your belly popped out you said it was my fault,
You told me I shoulda put something on

You weren't sayin' shit wen I was lickin on your pelvis
Now your tryna act up saying that I'm selfish
I ain't ready for no pikni I can't help it
And it's too late to say I should of worn a helmet
I would love to be the perfect dad
I would love to give my kids everything I never had (straight)
All I'm tryna say is now ain't the time
So if you don't wanna listen it's best I just leave

Who do you think you are I ain't gettin rid of shit
This is a part of me don't blame me, you should of put something on,
(but I'm just a man, you know how we are,
I don't wanna be involved it's not my fault)
It's like you thinking about yourself,
It's only you you you and noone else,
So take responsibility, you should of put something on,
So who do you think you are I ain't getting rid of shit,
Don't get this, don't blame me, you shoulda put something

Something let me tell you bout something,
Recognise you can't tell me nothing but one thing boy you got my blood pumpi ng,
I'm ragin at you, you got me so damn angry,
Your selfish and ruthless so useless excuses mean nothing to me,
This child is a part of me,
You can't begin to understand so while it's living and growing inside,
But you're just a man, you don't understand,
Get outta my(No) get outta my(No) get outta my face my face my face.

Who do you think you are I ain't getting rid of shit
This is a part of me don't blame me, you should of put something on,
(but I'm just a man, you know how we are,
I don't wanna be involved it's not my fault)
It's like you thinking about yourself,
It's only you you you and no1 else,
So take responsibility, you should of put something on,
So who do you think you are I ain't getting rid of shit,
Don't get this, don't blame me you should of put something

I feel for you but you knew the deal
(you was lying wen you said you was on the pill)
I have to be real with you
I think we both know that the both of us ain't got much doe
I'm afraid I can't be involved,

It's just the same old selfishness with you

Don't pretend your understanding
It's a little too late to act confused
Cause I know what I'm gonna do do do do do
Who do you think you are?

Who do you think you are I ain't getting rid of shit
This is a part of me don't blame me, you should of put something on,
(but I'm just a man, you know how we are,
I don't wanna be involved it's not my fault)
It's like you thinking about yourself, it's only you you you and no one else
So take responsibility, you shoulda put something on,
So who do you think you are I ain't getting rid of shit,
Don't get this, don't blame me you should of put something on
