

Moments

N.O.R.E.

Heard you smoke cigarettes still
Yeah, well that ain't good for you
You found a woman who love you, that's good for you
You get bent every night, that ain't good for you
Heard you moved out the hood, you know that's good for you

See I grew around a bunch of people, and we ain't talk a lot
We rode the buses and trains cause we ain't walk a lot
We ain't have sour, we had choc-o-lat
The white garage to the wing, they both parking lots
Lefrak City, mandalay, handling
Wanted to be Kenny Smith or Kenny Anderson
But somewhere my dreams got sidetracked-ed
Love how they treated the dealers and how they acted
Yeah, this lifestyle attractive
So I struck to the script just like a cactus
I had the stash under the mattress
Chandelier access, Elway with the passes

Heard you smoke cigarettes still
Yeah, well that ain't good for you
You found a woman who love you, that's good for you
You get bent every night, that ain't good for you
Heard you moved out the hood, you know that's good for you
See in life man, it's just about the moments
I swear to God yo, it's just 'bout the moments
It ain't about who's rich, it's 'bout the moments
It ain't about that bitch, it's 'bout the moments

People always wanna tell you what's good and what's not People always wanna tell you what's hot and what's not
Day after Thanksgiving, got a call from Jay Z
Said he wanted to build about something I said
Perhaps I was misled
Agreed with Tax One's story
Fuck it, it's still an honor, he still listens to Nore
I corrected because I wanna be useful
See I corrected because I wanna be truthful
I can't front, that's a moment for me
Smoking in Puff's crib, a moment for me
Every session with Pun, a moment for me
In the lab, 40, OVO was a moment my G

Heard you smoke cigarettes still
Yeah, well that ain't good for you
You found a woman who love you, that's good for you
You get bent every night, that ain't good for you
Heard you moved out the hood, you know that's good for you
See in life man, it's just about the moments
I swear to God yo, it's just 'bout the moments
It ain't about who's rich, it's 'bout the moments
It ain't about that bitch, it's 'bout the moments

On my wedding day, that was a moment
When I shot my first my nigga, that was a moment
When I signed my first deal, that was a moment
When I did my first bid, that was a moment

Every kid that I had, that was a moment
When I copped my first crib that was a moment
When I drove my first whip, that was a moment
When I sold my first brick that was a moment

Heard you smoke cigarettes still
Yeah, well that ain't good for you
You found a woman who love you, that's good for you
You get bent every night, that ain't good for you
Heard you moved out the hood, you know that's good for you
See in life man, it's just about the moments
I swear to God yo, it's just 'bout the moments
It ain't about who's rich, it's 'bout the moments
It ain't about that bitch, it's 'bout the moments
