

Take A Break

Najwajeon

Break, break, break
Take a break, break, break this color

Take up your back
And get away from here
We will be there if you don't care
You don't know my telephone number
Call my name and I'll be there

Take a break, break, break this color, this color

Take a fucking break

Can I, can I, can I, can I, can I,
Can I, can I, can I, can I, can I be your eyes?

(Entonces por qu  me dec s que lo haga otra vez?)

Take a fucking break

Palo palo palo palo palo
Palo palo palo palo palo mi tas

(No est s grabando, no?)

Take up your back
And get away from here

You don't know my telephone number
You don't know my telephone number
