

Thin Line

Nana Darkman

Bridge Manuell:

It's a thin line between right or wrong
Weak and strong, so I have to get now my walk on
You did me wrong,
Baby im gone baby im gone
You can't see what I can see
There's no more you and me
I guess that's how it's supposed to be
And baby I am gone

Rap1 Nana:

It's a thin line between love and hate
First you were my friend, in the end you turned into a snake
I loved your smile when you came thru the door
And now I dont trust you, I dont love you anymore
True friends love eachother, never lie
A tru friend will never let you down
And never make you cry
That's why I'm writing you this song
At the time you'll be listening to this, baby I'll be gone, all for long
It took a little while to be strong
It ain't only your fault, I also did you wrong
Now I know the we just dont belong, in my face, someone else will have to make you moan and groan
Now remember, how we used to bone I'm addicted to your love like a chunky, so make the don
But now the time has come for me to go
I've got my mind made up and the answer is no!

Chorus 1 Alex Prince:

There is just a thin line between a night and day
There is just a thin line between love and hate
But why do I want all this (?), all your dreams can turn to sin
In the gaining of the night, you can see our friendship
die

Bridge Manuell:

It's a thin line between right or wrong
Weak and strong, so I have to get now my walk on
You did me wrong,
Baby im gone baby im gone
You can't see what I can see
There's no more you and me
I guess that's how it's supposed to be
And baby I am gone

Rap 2 Nana

Tell me why did it come this far?
I did my very best and I gave you the whole reportoire
It seemed there was a one and only star
But you kicked my ass like a clutch of a sportscar
True friends are tight like a bar
A true friend is always there no matter light or dark

That's why I'm writing you this song
The time you'll be quiet to this, I'll be in Hong Kong
Never mind, find and you guide, read the signs
Give them only love treat them like a goldmine
After rain, there's always sunshine
Everything happens for a reason, so baby stop cryin'
We all do mistakes, bottom line
No one is perfect, not even the great Einstein
I guess, it's time for me to go I'll have you on my mind when they play our song on the radio

Chorus 1 Alex Prince:

There is just a thin line between a night and day
There is just a thin line between love and hate
But why do I want all this (?), all your dreams can
turn to sin
In the gaining of the night, you can see our friendship

Chorus 2 Alex Prince

There is just a thin line between a night and day
There is just a thin line between your love and hate
If we learn to get along, we may learn to sing a song
If we try to understand, we might see this fate again
