

As You Desire Me

Nancy Wilson

As you desire me, so shall I come to you,
Howe'er you want me, so shall I be,
Be it forever, or be it just a day,
As you desire me, let come what may.

I doubt not but you will, do what you will with me,
I give myself to you for you're my destiny.
And now come take me, my very soul is yours.
As you desire me, I come to you.

As you desire me, I come to you...
