

Born On Mother Earth

Narvan

This is what gives a big pain in my ass
Because I hate such a superticial conversation Supporting your prejudices and filing your holes Why don't you ask who I am what I think and where I go I'll be your partner or a buns whatever your self-confidence is looking for I ain't pooor and I aint't rich I aint't a saint I aint't a bit ch I'm not weak and I'm not strong Please stay cool don't get me wrong
The only think I wanna tell you don't stick to this trutless so urce
I know I'm not something special no my shit slinks just like yo urs
I was born on mother earth I'm a part of the universe
And if I have to tell you the truth I am a living creature like you I'm gonna be what I gotta be Talking about nothing is not what addresses me Get up and stand up and leave this place I don't need to get a new enemy
O.K. you stay it is your choice
But read in my face and listen to my voice I needn't compete wh o's got the better brain Guys like you think they are smart
But you disqualitted yourself at the start I don't wanna be rud e
I don't wanna be rough I gotta quit because I've got enough
The only thing I wanna tell you And it you get it that'll be fine I know you're not something s pecial
No your shit stinks just like mine
