

Eye Of The Storm

Nashville Cast

If you don't know by now you better listen good.
You got me chasin' but I probably shouldn't, baby.
One of these days I'll end up tattered and torn,
but right now, I'm gonna kiss you in the eye of the storm.
Kiss me.

Up and down, you got me ringing that bell.
That way you wear that dress, you wear it so well. I'm breaking
. Look out the door, there's chaos all through this town.
So, hold me tight and I won't let you fall down.

Don't think about it. No doubt about it.
Better kiss me quick, we're in the eye of the storm.
No doubt about it. Don't think about it.
Better kiss me quick, we're in the eye of the storm.

Better get low, these walls are ripping away.
Get low, get low, down get on your knees and pray.
In the name of love, how could you do me like that?
This thunder's rolling like a heart attack.

Don't think about it. No doubt about it.
Better kiss me quick, we're in the eye of the storm.
Don't think about it. No doubt about it.
Better kiss me quick, we're in the eye of the storm.

Kiss me.

Don't think about it. No doubt about it.
Better kiss me quick, we're in the eye of the storm.
Don't think about it. No doubt about it.
Better kiss me quick, we're in the eye of the storm.
