

He Ain't Me

Nashville Cast

I heard tell you've got a brand new boy
They say you've done well, he's the real McCoy
He's a hoot, and cute to boot
They all agree
Well he might be all that
But honey he ain't me

I bet that guy's got a line or two
He cares and swears he's there for you
You think he's Mister Right and he may be
But he ain't right for you cause honey he ain't me

He ain't the one who can love you best
He ain't got this heart beatin' in his chest
He may be sweet, he might be cute
And there's a girl for him, but that girl ain't you

I feel bad cause when you break up
You're gonna crush that boy like a Dixie cup
When you come runnin' back, eventually
Cause when all is said and done
He ain't me

He ain't the one who can love you best
He ain't got this heart beatin' in his chest
He may be sweet, he might be cute
And there's a girl for him
But girl it ain't you

I feel bad cause when you break up
You're gonna crush that boy like a Dixie cup
When you come runnin' back eventually
Cause when all is said and done
He won't be the one
That poor sad son of a gun
He ain't me
No he ain't me
He ain't me
No, he ain't me
