

Hey, concrete and steel
Don't like the lonely way, the way I feel
And I'm trying to find something real
Dying to find a place where I, where I can heal

All those ties that bind me
The past that reminds me
Gonna leave it all behind me
Down the long road I travel
Watch me unravel

Ooh, oh, undo my heart
Oh, oh, my hardest part

Hey, dark of the night
The sun's where I belong, I long for life
I'm tired but strong from the fight
And I'm just living, I'm living till I get it right

All those ties that bind me
The past that reminds me
Gonna leave it all behind me
Down the long road I travel
Watch me unravel

Oh, oh, undo my heart
Oh, oh, my hardest part
