Our world is injured by pollutions and war But you people in control you don't care at all

Like scarecrows on a field You stand stale and quiet

When will you act for humanity? When will you let your opinions be heard?

Like scarecrows on a field You stand stale and quiet

Our world is injured by pollutions and war But you people in control you don't care at all

Like scarecrows on a field You stand stale and quiet

When will you act for humanity? When will you let your opinions be heard?

Like scarecrows on a field You stand stale and quiet

Our world is injured by pollutions and war But you people in control you don't care at all

Like scarecrows on a field You stand stale and quiet

When will you act for humanity? When will you let your opinions be heard?

Like scarecrows on a field You stand stale and quiet